

All monopolar neurons (neurons with only a single line leaving the soma) in this model have dendrites but they are implicit in the notation and have the same location as the soma.

If a neuron is colored as sensory then the longer process is the dendrite, but in reality you should check the topology for a connection onto another neuron. Axons are always explicit and always fully connected to the soma.

